Balance Between Conciseness and Exquisiteness

Larry high-end series is an expression of balance between conciseness and exquisiteness. Designed with vertical elements, its concise lines extrude majestic momentum. A lively interpretation of eastern propriety and western aesthetics. Economic and political strategies are combined with space design, making Larry the best representative of your status.

A Gift of Status, As It Is

Larry retains a modern look with a dash of retro styling as the arrestive L-shape structure stresses the idea of propriety, which is the core of Chinese Confucianism. Reliable and restrained, it exemplifies the charisma of leaders to the full.

A Mix of Wood and Leather

The ubiquitous "L "shape structure constituted by clean lines symbolizes "leading". Grey leather and walnut wood harmonize with each other; together with Calm chair, this space creates a sedate aura. Besides, premium leather gives you all-day comfort.

1. The side cabinet drawer is equipped with smart fingerprint lock for higher file security.

4. Multiple power sockets and USB interfaces are built inside to charge different devices.

6. Wireless charging function, charging the digital device at any time.

2. Under the sliding leather plate there are power socket, pen case, and wiring hole.

3. The large-capacity storage drawer is designed with a built-in double-layer

5. Playing a song to relax yourself.

Integration of Storage and Display

The symmetrical structure and semi-open file cabinet strike a perfect balance between openness and privacy, and the intelligent light helps to create an elegant aura.

Small-size private file

In an era where everything is about maximizing profits, we have consistently revered and inherited the spirit of ingenuity. Larry adopts hardware from international brands: Austria Blum and German Hettich combined with atmosphere lamp, artistic mountain grain on back cabinet, glass, leather, and wood is perfect confluence, for every detail is essential for implementing perfection.

A Gift of Status, As It Is

Larry high-end conference table is born for originality. Designed with a 65mm-thick desktop, the overall appearance is powerful and domineering. The desk feet adopts delicate leather upholstery technique, holding the desk like the Roman column, majestic and erect, and creating a serious conference environment.

CONTRACTOR STREET, S

The feet adopts delicate leather upholstery on two sides to combine the firmness of wood and softness of leather and protect the feet from collision. Grey tone is low-key yet classic.

The indented feet design makes room for your legs and brings you a comfortable sitting experience throughout the meeting.

Larry makes new definitions about the healthy working experience by innovatively integrating the sit-to-stand function to its side cabinet. Available in both seated and standing heights, it strikes a perfect balance between dynamism and demureness. The digital switch can be rotated slightly so that people in standing positions can also see the real-time height effortlessly.

A powerful lifting motor with a low noise makes technological elements fit right in, bringing quiet and smooth operations. A range from 750mm to 1150mm encourages you to choose your preferred table height.

Interior Cabling brings Total Neatness

The lifting presidential desk has made breakthroughs in terms of cabling to ensure no wire is exposed during the lifting process. Easily accessible power sockets help to charge your tools conveniently.

A combination of wood and leather is designed to take up less visual space yet still outlasts trends. 8mm super-slim enclosed strip offers a stark contrast to the thickness of the surrounding area, which furthermore stresses its delicacy.

90° flip cable box makes cables managed and stowed neatly out of sight.

The under-desk leather drawer can be pulled out and used anywhere.Black paint plate and mountain-grain walnut harmoniously match to endow the space with business aura.

Semi-open back cabinet is the right place to store private files and display art collections. With a symmetrical segmentation design, different sizes of collection can fit in. The yellow leather panel increases the stereo sense of the office space.

The segmented leather layer is designed for storing delicate accessories like neckties, belts, and glasses.

Flip cable trunking: Both ends of the desktop are equipped with a cable box with hairbrush and two power sockets.Door-shaped feet: Unique mechanical structure brings a sense of tension.

There is another combination

Small-size executive desk can be matched to any mobile cabinet to form an office system.

Square Base with Asymmetric Aesthetics

The middle-size desk and small-size desk both have a wonderful combination of square metal feet and solid wooden feet, creating an asymmetric beauty we may also see in arms of the Venus statue. Black acrylic is used on desk edges to increase the sense of change. A variety of storage cabinets are available for small space layout.

Multiple Types of Bases Available

EY86 manager table with multiple types of bases available is perfect for matching different space styles. Square steel base with sand-blasting processing is concise and competent; and black solid walnut base is prudent and generous.

Small-size Negotiation Table for Idea-Exchanging

Talking to someone sharing one ambition is a fun thing to do, for you may exchange ideas and opinions. Larry EY70 negotiation table is designed with a T-shaped structure in which the desktop is concise and thick while the feet is upright and firm. Open your mind and exchange ideas here.
