Balance Between Conciseness and Exquisiteness

Larry high-end series is an expression of balance between conciseness and exquisiteness. Designed with vertical elements, its concise lines extrude majestic momentum. A lively interpretation of eastern philosophy and western aesthetics. Economy and politics strategies are combined with space design, making Larry the best representative of your status.

CCTV building is not only a building with novel appearance, but also connects with the citizens of Beijing on micro and macro levels.

——David Gianotten (Designer of the CCTV building)

Spatial Stereo Structure with Golden Proportion

The semi-open design of the side cabinets is just fine in private storage and open display. A gray glass is inlaid in between, faintly revealing the light. The metal waistline is the highlight to the overall appearance, making the whole space full of vitality.

Warmth Given by Leather and Wood

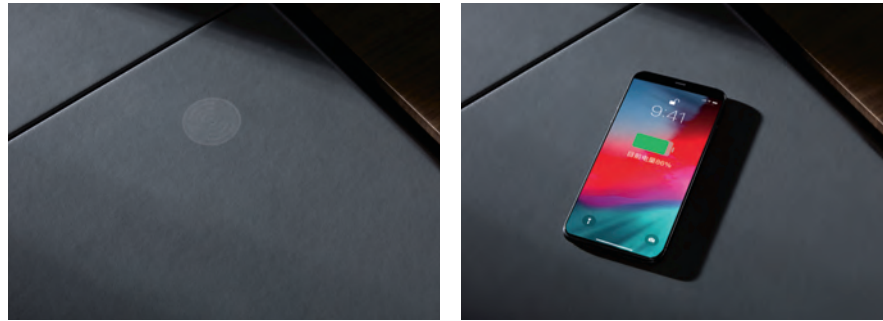

Stone gray leather and walnut are combined to give a calm and atmospheric tone, and lines are concise and powerful. The ubiquitous L-shaped structure contains the meaning of Leading. Main desk and side desk have different height to enhance the space depth and perspective.

Gifted Austrian Hardware for Smooth Opening and Closing

With the inspiration from Da Vinci's words "Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication", Larry is designed with handleless door to seamlessly transit to the main table. Austria Blum buffer door hinges are used to ensure smooth opening and closing, offering more quietness to the office.

1. Wireless charging function, charging the digital device at any time.

Five-star Intelligent Device, A Gift of Possibilities

Larry high-end series is appealing in overall appearance with a further five-star intelligent device offering infinite possibilities in functionality.

2. The side cabinet drawer is equipped with smart finger print lock for higher file security.

3. The large-capacity storage drawer is designed with a built-in double-layer leather pencil box.

4. Inside the sliding leather plate is designed with power socket, pen case, and wiring hole.

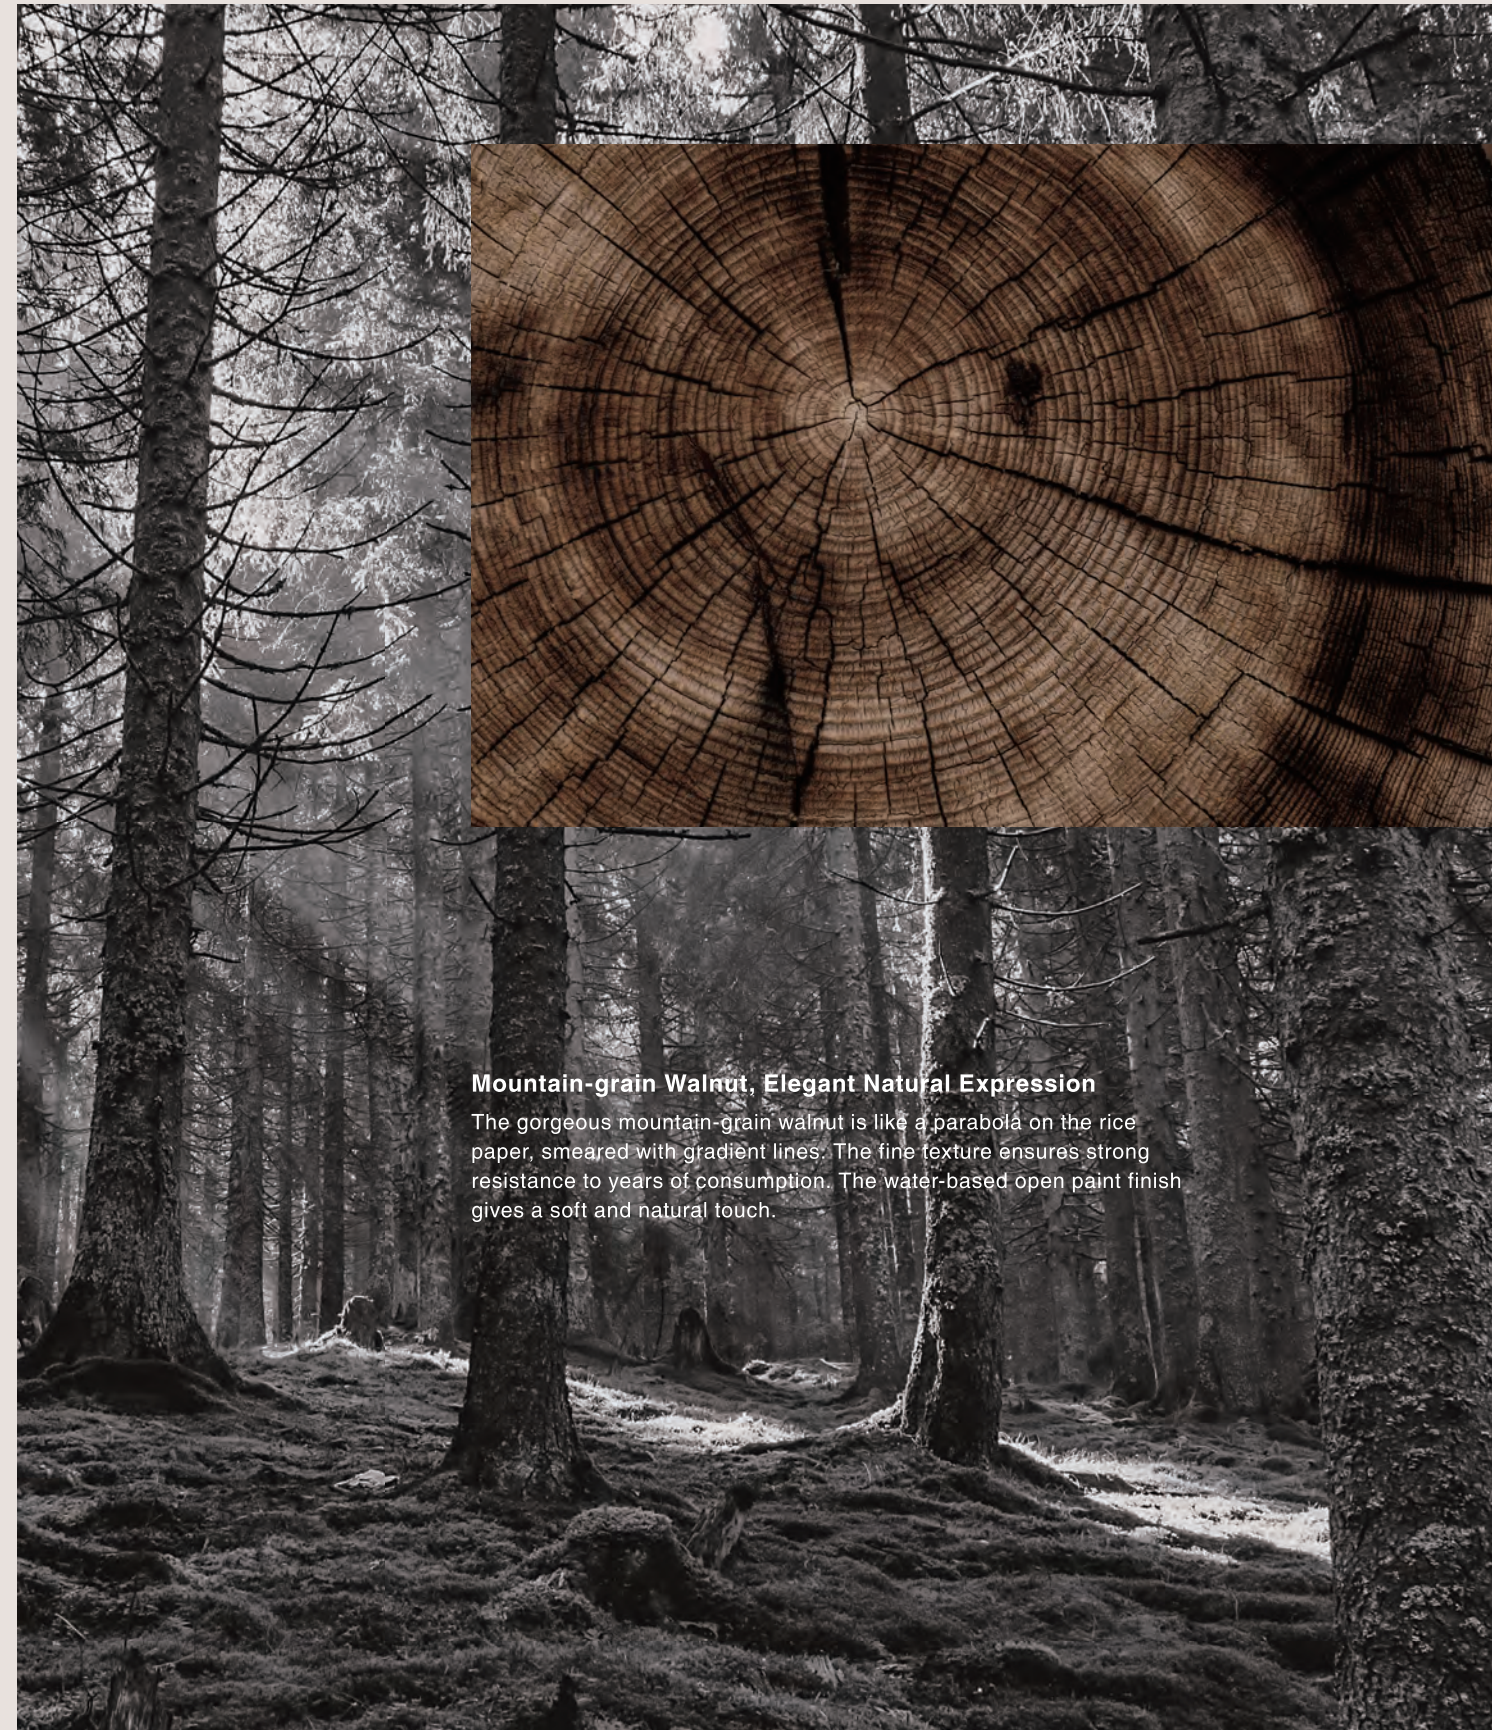

Concealed trunking

Multiple power sockets and USB interfaces are built in to charge different devices.

Optional loudspeaker

You can choose to equip an audio speaker to the side cabinet. Playing a music to soothe your mind is a good option.

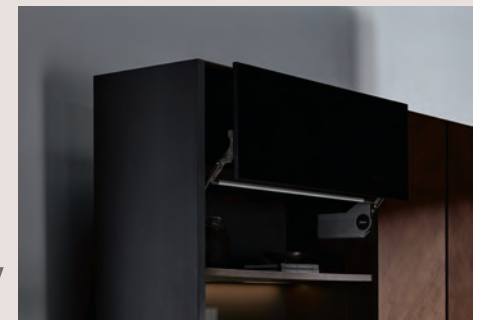

Mountain-grain Walnut, Elegant Natural Expression

The gorgeous mountain-grain walnut is like a parabola on the rice paper, smeared with gradient lines. The fine texture ensures strong resistance to years of consumption. The water-based open paint finish gives a soft and natural touch.

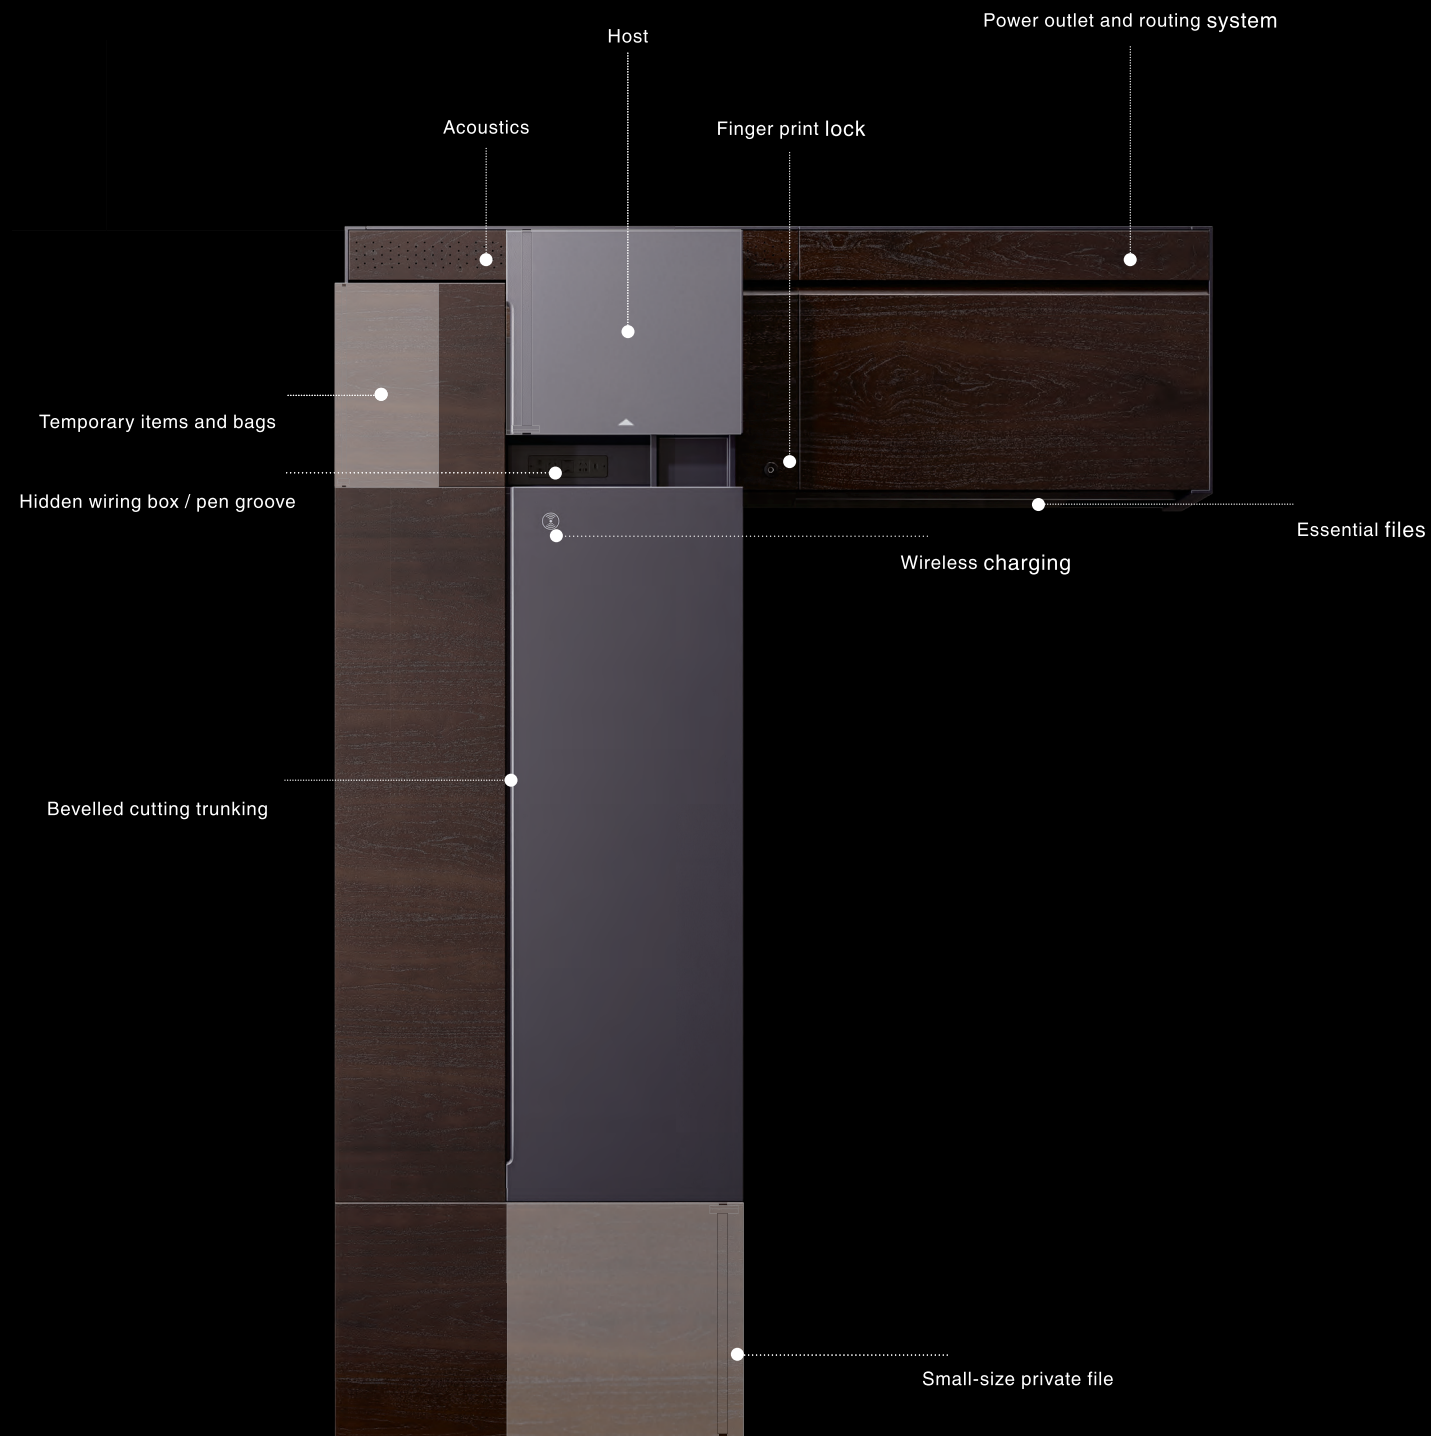

Integration of Storage and Display

Matsushita Yukisuke and Wang Yangming met on the bookshelf; African rosewood carving work and Japanese cast copper horses stand side by side; The Ming Dynasty stoneware and the purple sand girders smile and greet to each other on the shelves. The semi-open file cabinet is eclectic and exudes a strong cultural atmosphere. Herringbone-patterned double-door wardrobe is produced with a wood and glass splicing process, a sincere witness of craftsmanship.

First-class Comfort

Calm office chair adopts leather upholstery technique that is equal to that used in first-class cabin, and is designed with airfoil-shaped armrests. The smooth stainless steel panel adds extra glow to the overall appearance. The stereo leather texture of the backrest echoes with the waistline of the side cabinet. All these together offers you imperturbable comfort.

A Gift of Status, Born Like This

Larry high-end conference table is born for originality. Designed with a 65mm-thick desktop, the overall appearance is powerful and domineering. The desk feet adopts delicate leather upholstery technique, holding the desk like the Roman column, majestic and erect, and creating a serious conference environment.

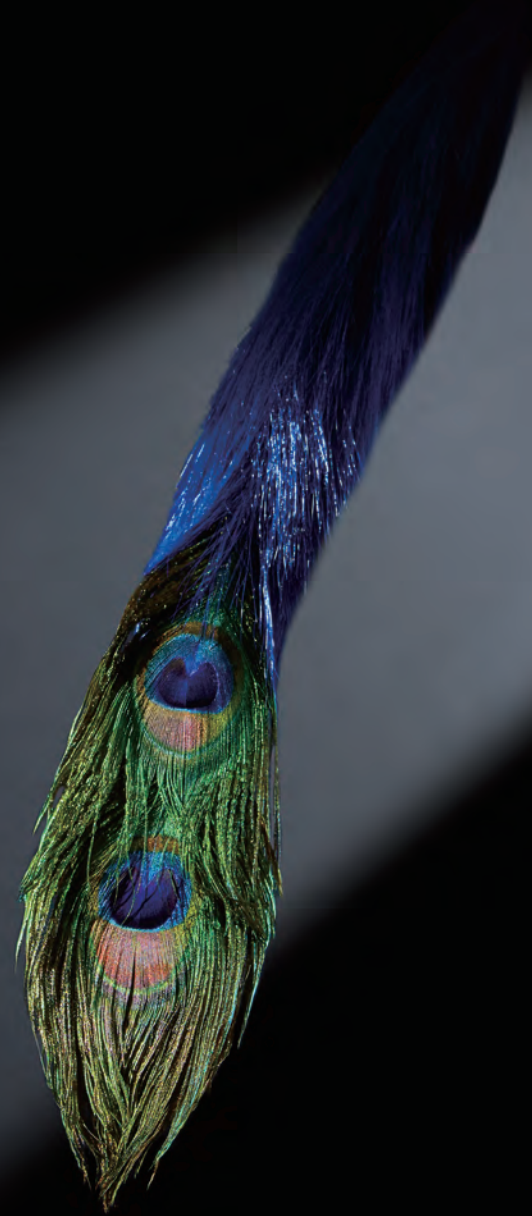

Leather Upholstery on the Feet for Higher Safety

The feet adopts delicate leather upholstery technique to combine the firmness of wood and softness of leather and protect the feet from collision. Grey tone is low-key yet atmospheric.

Leather Slide Wiring Box, A Gift of Softness

Larry conference desk adopts ultra-fibre leather on the desktop to add more softness. You can slide the leather plate to open the trunk for accommodating cords and plugs. The inward feet design provides more space for your knee to enjoy free and active conversation.

Two-eye Hualing (Two peacock tail feathers on hats of second-class officials from Qing dynasty)

Larry Business Series, A Gift of Taste

Senior managers are mainstays for an enterprise for their worth in strategy development, decision making and execution. Office space for them needs more privacy and focus in space layout. Larry business office system is a fine match to your ambition and achievement, and is a perfect expression of your unique taste.

Inner Honesty and Outer Straightness

Larry business series is born with the wisdom of inner honesty and outer straightness. Bright white is added to the neutral tone, stylish and light. Semi-open space layout meets basic office needs as well as the demand of the managers for strategy development and decision making and execution.

Black paint plate and mountain-grain walnut harmoniously match to endow the space with business aura.

Storage cabinet has a large capacity and adopts aluminum panel and groove with double line edges to enhance a stereo sense.

Butterfly hinge flip box is designed with nine 86-type chargers, sufficient for charging various devices.

Metal and glass are further used in addition to solid wood and leather. The gray glass shelf plate is vivid and flexible.

Storage, A Gift of Inclusiveness

Semi-open back cabinet is the right place to store private files and display art collections. With a golden proportion segmentation design, different sizes of collection can fit in. The meteor gray leather edge increases the stereo sense of the office space.

Flip cable trunking: Both ends of the desktop is designed with a cable box with hairbrush and three 86-type cable boxes inside.

Door-shaped feet: Unique mechanical structure brings a sense of tension.

One-eye Hualing (One peacock tail feather on hats of third-class officials from Qing dynasty)

Dedication to Administrative Office Space

Middle-level managers of enterprises should not only pass on information but also put into practice through coordination. Larry administrative office system has modular components for convenient and free combination. User friendly division proportion maximizes space utilization for flexibility and high-efficiency in administrative office space.

Other combinations are available for more diversity.
Small-size executive desk can be matched to any mobility cabinet to form an office system.

Square Base with Asymmetric Aesthetics

The middle-size desk and small-size desk both have a wonderful combination of square metal feet and solid wooden feet, creating an asymmetric beauty we may also see in arms of the Venus statue. Black acrylic is used on desk edges to increase the sense of change. A variety of storage cabinets are available for small space layout.

Multiple Types of Bases Available

EY86 manager table with multiple types of bases available is perfect for matching different space styles. Square steel base with sand-blasting processing is concise and competent; and black solid walnut base is prudent and generous.

Small-size Negotiation Table for Mind-Exchanging

Talking to someone sharing one ambition is a fun thing to do, for you may exchange ideas and opinions. Larry EY70 negotiation table is designed with a T-shaped structure in which the desktop is concise and thick while the feet is upright and firm. Broaden your mind and promote cooperation here.
